

The Grant Writing Coach

More Grant Funding Reasons

Any non-profit organization can write a grant proposal. Whether big or small, every non-profit is a potential recipient of grant funding. However, it helps to have a particular project that needs funding. Typical projects that are prime for funding include:

- A new bus or van
- A new roof
- A new playground
- A new gym
- Athletic equipment
- A new housing unit
- Curriculum development
- Research
- Project staffing
- Operations
- Scholarships
- Capital improvements
- Program development and enhancement
- Capacity building
- Training
- Materials acquisition
- Equipment
- Internships
- Publication
- Capital campaigns
- Endowments
- Media development
- Seed money
- Housing
- Annual Campaigns
- Land acquisition
- Technical assistance
- Information technology
- Professional development
- Consulting services
- Building renovation
- Poverty intervention
- Emergency services
- Remedial education
- Adult education
- Special needs children and adults

And so much more...
